HOW WE DO IT

GoToFair

EVENT MANAGER

After you sign up, our event manager will be at your service to help set up your event, understand your customizations, answer your queries and ultimately set you up for success. The Event Manager will be your go to person before, during and after the event. In your native language, near you in your country.

PRE-EVENT

Need help in uploading your content? Do your exhibitors need help in setting up their booths? Our Event Ops team has got you covered. They make sure that the event reflects your technical, content and design needs.

DURING LIVE EVENT

Our customer service representatives will always be available via phone / email / chat while the event is live to answer queries or resolve issues your exhibitors or visitors might have.

POST-EVENT

You can't judge how successful your event was if you don't measure it. That's why we make sure our Event Managers not only produce a performance report for the event as a whole, but also provide exhibitors with their booth-level stats as well. We look into your attendance, booth engagement and interactions to help you gauge your ROI.
